International Programs Appeal for Exception

Once complete email to the Director of International Programs gbeaudin@rollins.edu

3. Studying abroad at a later date can provide time to improve your current situation to meet the requirements for your program of interest. If this is the only time for you to study abroad, please explain.

Please note the following:

Submission of an appeal does not guarantee approval for an exception.

Student GPAs, if an appeal is granted, will be reviewed once current semester grades post. If the student's GPA falls below that of when the appeal was granted, the approval to participate in the program may be withdrawn.

For approved appeals to Community Standards the student will have to agree to and sign a behavior contract. Additional Community Standards violations prior to the program start date may result in withdrawal from the program.

In the event a student is withdrawn from a program due to those instances stated above, the student is subject to the refund and cancellation policy and responsible for any non-recoverable expenses committed to or incurred on their behalf as stated in the Statement of Intent and Financial Agreement.
